Imagine a home in the Los Boliches area, located near the train station, providing easy access to public transportation and the convenience of having all kinds of amenities nearby, such as supermarkets, stores, restaurants, and bars. This property is situated on the fourth floor of a building, offering sea views from the bedroom. Upon entering, you are welcomed by a bright and cozy atmosphere. The living room is spacious, with large windows that allow plenty of natural light to enter and provide access to a private terrace, perfect for enjoying breakfast or relaxing while taking in the urban landscape and the distant sea. The bedroom, equally spacious and well-lit, has the added advantage ...
