hr /> This recently renovated villa has it all - a new home merging old with new - fusing original features such as the Tosca Arches with sustainable materials creating huge amounts of natural light and pure tranquillity along with spectacular valley views. This newly reformed property is located within a short walk of Javea's old town with all its amenities, bars and restaurants which is very rare to find in the current marketplace. The villa benefits from views of the beautiful Montgó mountain where you will be fascinated by the sunset, with the stunning lights and colours displayed while you enjoy every little spot in the villa, in this case from the balcony on the first floor. ...
