At the foot of the impressive Monte Ponoig, also known as The Sleeping Lion, lies this modern semi-detached villa with a view that makes you stop and look every single day. From the house you can see both the mountains and the Mediterranean Sea – a panorama that never gets old. The home combines sleek design with a warm, homely feel. Thanks to the large windows, there is plenty of natural light, giving every room a bright, open and inviting atmosphere. The finishing touches are impeccable: clean lines, high-quality materials and a calm, elegant style. The open-plan living room and spacious kitchen form the heart of the house. The kitchen features a breakfast bar, 4-zone induction hob, co...
