Located on the edge of the Cabopino golf course, this property offers three bedrooms, two bathrooms and an additional shower room. It has two entrances: a main entrance on the upper floor and a second one through the garden below. The house requires renovation but stands on an exceptional spot, overlooking the pine trees, the golf course and the sea all the way to Gibraltar. On the upper floor, the main entrance opens into the living area with an open kitchen. Large windows frame the view of the greenery and the sea. At the front, there is a terrace with morning sun; at the back, another terrace with evening sun and open sea views. A staircase connects the terrace directly to the garden. O...
