We present an ideal property as a primary residence or investment, located in an established neighbourhood with all amenities and the María Zambrano train station and Vialia shopping centre just a five-minute walk away. This and other features that we will now describe make this property ideal for almost anyone looking for practicality, a vibrant area and, at the same time, the perfect location away from the hustle and bustle, with plenty of light, unobstructed views and good orientation. In short, it is what you might call an all-rounder property. Our property has three bedrooms and one bathroom, a fitted and partially equipped kitchen, a living room with south-west facing windows, which is ...
