Some houses you look at; others you feel. This villa, in one of the finest parts of Maryvilla, belongs to the second kind: panoramic views of the sea and the Peñón de Ifach, sunsets that wash over the whole property, and a sense of calm from the very first moment. Fully renovated and ready to move into, the home spans two floors with 340 m² of built space on an 840 m² plot. Its six bedrooms, two bathrooms and three kitchens, together with two independent entrances, offer rare flexibility — ideal for two families or for combining a home with a rental. The living areas open onto generous terraces framing the view, while the swimming pool, jacuzzi and Mediterranean garden make the most ...
