The road climbs away from the coast through cork oak and pine, passing through the gates into one of the Costa del Sol's most private and established communities – El Madroñal – where nature takes centre stage. Built in respect of Andalusian architecture and the surrounding landscape, the house sits naturally within its setting. Blending Andalusian character with subtle Scandinavian influences, it combines understated luxury with enduring quality. Set within a private estate of more than 9,600 m<sup>2</sup>, the property enjoys a rare sense of space and privacy. Facing south and west, it offers open views of the Mediterranean Sea, rolling hills, and surrounding mountains. Perfectly positione...
