This unique finca is an old water mill that pre-dates the formation of the town of Xaló (Jalon) itself. Originally restored in 1984, then completely renovated in 2022, the property is on two levels and has a total build area of 524m2. On the ground floor is a large open plan fully fitted modern kitchen, dining room, lounge room and a very spacious living room with original beams and stone fireplace. There are also three double bedrooms on this floor with two bathrooms, a guest toilet plus storage and laundry rooms. On the upper floor a hallway leads to two more double bedrooms, a dressing room and a bathroom. There is also a very large living and dining area on this floor plus another st...
