This exceptional ground-floor apartment offers a rare combination of space, privacy, and open views within a secure and highly sought-after residential setting on the Costa del Sol. The property enjoys uninterrupted views over a protected green zone and walking trail, extending south toward the Mediterranean Sea, creating a feeling of openness and tranquility that is increasingly difficult to find. The apartment features a spacious interior with three bedrooms and two bathrooms, seamlessly connected to a truly massive wrap-around terrace that defines the home and offers outstanding outdoor living throughout the year. Built in 2023 and maintained in excellent condition, the property has had ...
