Los Arqueros – Villa with panoramic sea and golf views Set in an elevated and very private position in Los Arqueros, this spacious six-bedroom villa enjoys open views across the golf course, the valley and the Mediterranean. The property is in good overall condition and built with quality materials, while the interiors would benefit from modernisation. This gives a new owner the opportunity to create a more contemporary home while keeping the solid structure and generous proportions. The sea is visible from almost every room, creating a wonderful sense of openness, almost as if the house were floating above the valley. Every bedroom has direct access to a terrace. The villa offers six ...
