Situated within the lively Puerto Banús Marina, this property occupies the prime location not only due to its convenient access but also because of its position in the quietest area, directly above the flagship Louis Vuitton store. This ensures that the facade and external features of the building are always maintained to the highest standards. The location is as exceptional as it gets, offering easy access and being just 200 meters from the beach and ocean. You'll also find yourself surrounded by luxury shops, fine dining restaurants, cafes, and department stores. This fully renovated penthouse boasts high-end finishes throughout, with panoramic sea views that immediately greet you upon...
