Some homes just have that special feeling, and this is one of them. Set within a gated community with gardens and a swimming pool, this corner townhouse perfectly combines the charm of its original architecture with a fresh, elegant renovation. It's the ideal family home, yet also a smart investment: demand in Torrequebrada is so strong that it could be rented out for long-term stays almost immediately after purchase. The location is simply unbeatable. We're in Torrequebrada, one of Benalmádena's most desirable residential areas — quiet, well-connected, and just a short walk from the beach. Around the corner, you'll find Mercadona, cafés, restaurants, bakeries, phar...
