Situated in one of the most privileged areas of Dénia, this independent villa offers tranquility, privacy, and an unparalleled natural setting. The property has been well maintained for the last 25 years and consists of a main house and two independent studios, making it an ideal option for both family residence and investment. This property offers enormous potential for improvement with minimal investment. As you can see in the photographs, with simple actions like painting the exterior and updating the decor to a Mediterranean style, the transformation is truly remarkable. With a few well-thought-out details, the home can be completely transformed, bringing much more brightness, freshness...
