A delightful home with stunning south-facing sea views in an exclusive area. The entrance opens into a bright, open-plan living area where expansive glass doors frame the garden, creating a seamless connection to the outdoors. To the right, a modern kitchen centers on a social island, flowing naturally into the dining space. This leads into a lounge anchored by a fireplace, with direct access to a private terrace and garden designed to embrace the sea views and coastal climate. Returning toward the entrance, a guest bathroom sits to the left, followed by the stairs to the upper level. Dedicated to privacy, this floor features a full bathroom and a bedroom to the right, while the left hallwa...
