The first thing you notice each morning is the quiet. Not silence — something better. A soft rustle of palm leaves, the distant hum of a golf buggy, and the gentle sweep of the breeze across the greens. Living frontline golf has its own rhythm, and from this beautifully renovated ground?floor apartment, you feel it from the moment you wake. You step out into the conservatory — its tiled roof keeping the space cool and calm — and the early light spills across the 60 m² terrace. Beyond it, your private garden stretches out, a full 1,000 m² of space that feels more like a villa than an apartment. The grass is still damp with morning dew, and the fairway just beyond glows gold under th...
