Set in one of Sotogrande's most desirable areas, this elegant six-bedroom villa combines modern sophistication with the timeless appeal of Andalusian architecture. Its elevated position provides spectacular views across the Mediterranean, while the nearby international school is within comfortable walking distance, making the property particularly well suited to families. The interior has been thoughtfully designed to make the most of the abundant natural light and surrounding scenery. The heart of the home is a contemporary open-plan kitchen, complete with an impressive island and far-reaching views. From here, the layout flows naturally into the spacious dining and living areas, crea...
