Mediterranean Elegance Meets Individual Architecture in Cerros del Águila This exceptional four-bedroom, four-bathroom villa combines Ibiza-inspired elegance with Santorini-blue character in a peaceful elevated setting overlooking the countryside, mountains and Mediterranean Sea. Originally designed by award-winning architect Jaime García Jaramillo, the villa features dramatic tower ceilings, curved architectural details and a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living. Recently refreshed, it offers newly painted interiors, stylish new furniture and a contemporary kitchen. The main level includes an impressive entrance hall, spacious open-plan living and dining area, fully fit...
