Set within the established residential setting of Sotogrande Alto, this south-facing contemporary villa is conceived to offer a refined combination of modern architecture, generous living spaces and a strong connection with its natural surroundings. The property occupies a beautifully wooded plot framed by mature cork oak trees, creating a sense of privacy and tranquillity. The architectural concept centres around a striking double-height entrance hall, introducing the villa's contemporary character from the moment of arrival. On the main level, spacious open-plan living and dining areas flow seamlessly into the modern kitchen, creating an inviting environment for both everyday living ...
