There are houses that are remembered for a detail. This one is remembered for the sea peeking through its arches. In the quiet area of Benimallunt, just a few minutes from Benissa, this Mediterranean villa enjoys sea and mountain views from the pool and its two floors. The house is experienced from the living room. Large arched windows frame the landscape like paintings, and a wall of natural stone adds warmth. The living-dining room is spacious and open, directly leading to the terrace and pool. Next to it, a kitchen with wooden cabinetry, comfortable and well-equipped, and a bright office space for work. On the upper floor, the bedrooms are spacious and tranquil, several with access to the...
