Located in La Alquería, Benahavís, this four-bedroom villa enjoys an elevated position with open views across the surrounding golf course, mountains and towards the Mediterranean. The property offers bright and spacious interiors arranged around generous living areas with large windows that frame the surrounding landscape and connect naturally with the outdoor spaces. The main lounge and dining area benefit from abundant natural light, while warm architectural details such as exposed wooden beams add character to the home. The villa features four bedrooms and three bathrooms, including two en-suite bedrooms. Several of the bedrooms enjoy direct access to terraces or open views, creating ...
